Online Account Access

We will tell you which types of accounts qualify for our Online Banking service. You must be a named owner/obligor on the account in our records for it to qualify. Any account requiring more than one signature for withdrawal, draw or transfer of funds does not qualify. You agree to provide us with any authority we require before we permit access to any qualifying account. Please refer to the online help and instructions on how to use our Online Banking service.

You, or someone you have authorized by giving them your access code (even if that person exceeds your authority), can instruct us to perform the following transactions:

- Transfer funds between qualifying accounts;
- Obtain information that we make available about qualifying accounts; and
- Obtain other services or perform other transactions that we allow.

Security Procedures

A. Access Codes

To use our Online Banking service, you must use the access codes we establish or provide for you. Keep them confidential to prevent unauthorized use or loss to your accounts. Anyone to whom you give your access codes will have full access to your accounts even if you attempt to limit that person's authority. Additionally, that person will have full access to any other of your accounts which are accessed by those access codes, even if those accounts are in your name with another person. None of our employees will contact you via phone or e-mail requesting your access codes. If you are contacted by anyone requesting this information, please contact us immediately at our phone number shown in the section below entitled Notify us IMMEDIATELY for Unauthorized Transactions.

B. Browser Security

Some internet browsers may save users names and passwords. This will automatically complete any login for you and may allow people at your computer or mobile device to use your logins without knowing your passwords. For your security, review your internet browsers "Help" section to clear cookies (cookies are small data files that stay on your computer or other mobile device by the web server when a site is visited) or contact their Customer Support to see if this option is available and how to disable this option.

It is your responsibility to obtain and maintain your internet browser to ensure that your connectivity is secure and is in accordance with applicable requirements, including any requirements of web server companies and authorities. You are responsible for obtaining, installing, maintaining and operating all hardware, software and Internet access services necessary for obtaining and securing our Online Banking service.

C. Your Obligations for Consumer Accounts

In addition to protecting your access codes, you should also take precautions to protect your personal identification information, such as your driver's license, Social Security number, or tax identification number. This information by itself or together with account information may allow unauthorized access to your accounts. You should treat personal information with the same level of care that you would for your account information. You should also protect and secure all information and data stored in any personal computer or other equipment you use to access our Online Banking service.

D. Your Obligations for Business Accounts

You agree that we may send notices and other communications, including Access Code confirmations, to the current address for your business shown in our records, whether or not that address includes a designation for delivery to the attention of any particular individual. You further agree that we will not be responsible or liable to you in any way if information is intercepted by an unauthorized person, either in transit or at your place of business.

In order to prevent unauthorized access to your Online Accounts and unauthorized use of the Services, you agree to maintain the confidentiality and security of the Access Codes, and to instruct all Administrators and Authorized Users also to maintain the confidentiality and security of the Access Codes. You agree to notify us immediately if you believe your Access Codes may have become subject to unauthorized use. We will have no liability to you for any unauthorized payment or transfer made using your Access Codes that occurs before you have notified us of possible unauthorized use and we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice. We may suspend or cancel your Access Codes even without receiving such notice from you if we suspect your Access Codes are being used in an unauthorized or fraudulent manner. You recognize that anyone possessing the Access Codes can access your Online Accounts and initiate transactions on those Accounts. You agree that you are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and security of all Access Codes, and for implementing the necessary internal controls, balancing and reconciliation functions, and audit procedures to protect your Online Banking subscription and all your Online Accounts from theft or misuse.

E. Commercially Reasonable Security Procedures for Business Accounts

By entering into this agreement and using our Online Banking service to perform transactions from business accounts, you agree to comply with all of our present and future security procedures with respect to transactions and services covered by this agreement. This includes, but is not limited to, protection of access codes and other personal and business information. Our security procedures are contained in this agreement and in other written procedures we may provide to you.

You acknowledge receiving a copy in writing of our current security procedures in this agreement and other documents we may provide to you. You agree that our current security procedures are commercially reasonable in the context of your business operations. We may at any time change our security procedures. We may advise you of such changes to the extent they affect your use of transactions and services under this agreement, but failure to do so will not affect your obligations or our rights. You agree to give all of our security procedures the highest level of confidentiality and to ensure that no access codes are used by or accessible to anyone other than persons you have authorized.

Notwithstanding any security procedure which may from time to time be in effect for detecting errors in transactions covered by this agreement, we have no duty to discover or report to you any such errors. Neither shall we be liable to you for the failure of such security procedure to detect such errors, regardless of the manner in which we apply such security procedures.

Liability Provisions for Consumer Accounts

A. Your Liability for Consumer Accounts

Your Liability for Authorized Transactions. You are liable for all transactions that you make or authorize, even if the person you authorize exceeds your authority. If you have given someone your access codes and want to terminate that person's authority, you must notify us that transactions by such a person are no longer authorized. We may have to change your access codes or take additional steps to prevent further access by such person.

Notify us IMMEDIATELY for Unauthorized Transactions. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your access codes have been lost, stolen or otherwise compromised or used without your authorization. Quickly telephoning us is the best way of reducing your possible losses. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). You may call or write:

- Telephone us at 800-622-3631 or 361-986-4500 during Member Service hours;
Rally Credit Union
PO Box 81349
Corpus Christi, TX 78468-1349

If we provide you with another electronic means of notifying us for this specific purpose, you may use that means. However, DO NOT use a general e-mail service or other electronic means that we have not specifically authorized for this purpose.

Your Liability for Unauthorized Transactions. If you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your access codes involving a consumer account, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used them without your authority.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your access codes, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using them without your authority if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

Also, if your statement for a consumer account shows transfers covered by this agreement that you did not make or authorize, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

Transfers Involving Insufficient Funds. If you instruct us to make a transfer and you do not have a sufficient balance in the account from which you are making the transfer (including available credit under any overdraft line), we may refuse to complete the transaction. We may do this even if there are sufficient funds in accounts other than the one you were using to make the transfer. If we complete a transfer that you make or authorize and we subsequently learn that you have insufficient funds for the transaction in the account from which the transfer is made, you agree that we may reverse the transaction or offset the shortage with funds from any other account you have with us. In any case, you are fully obligated to us to provide sufficient funds for any transfers you make or authorize.

If we do not make a transfer, or if we reverse a transfer, because of insufficient funds, we are not required to make any further attempt to process the transfer or to notify you that the transfer has not been completed. You may be liable for a non-sufficient funds fee (Returned Item fee) under the terms governing the account from which you made, or attempted to make, the transfer.

B. Rally Credit Union's Liability for Consumer Account

If we do not complete a transfer from a consumer account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are exceptions. We will NOT be liable, for instance:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough available money in the account from which a transfer is to be made, or if the account has been closed or is not in good standing, or if we reverse a transfer because of insufficient funds.
- If any transfer would go over the credit limit of any account.
- If your equipment or ours was not working properly and the breakdown should have been apparent to you when you attempted to conduct the transaction.
- If you have not given us complete, correct or current account numbers or other identifying information so that we can properly credit your account or otherwise complete the transaction.
- If you do not properly follow our instructions or if you provide us with wrong or inaccurate information or fail to correct or tell us about any inaccuracy of which you are aware.
- If you do not instruct us soon enough for your transfer to be received and credited.
- If the money in the account from which a transfer is to be made is subject to legal process or other claim restricting the transaction.
- If circumstances or persons beyond our control prevent, delay, intercept, or alter the transaction, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
- There may be other exceptions stated in our agreement with you.

C. Error Resolution for Consumer Account

In Case of Errors or Questions About Transactions Involving Consumer Accounts. This section applies only to transactions covered by this agreement and that involve consumer accounts. As soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer covered by this agreement which is listed on the statement call or write us at:

- Telephone us at 800-622-3631 or 361-986-4500 during Member Service hours;
Rally Credit Union
PO Box 81349
Corpus Christi, TX 78468-1349

We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number (if any).
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error and/or why you need more information.

- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing so that we receive it within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we are not required to provisionally credit your account.

For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error. Your account is considered a new account for the first 30 days after the first deposit is made, unless you already have an established account with us.

When the investigation is completed, we will make any necessary or appropriate adjustments to your account. We will tell you the results within three (3) business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error or the error was different than you described, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

Liability Provisions for Business Accounts

A. Your Liability for Business Accounts

You are liable for all transactions that you make or authorize, even if the person you authorize exceeds your authority. If you or a company representative has given someone your access codes and want to terminate that person's authority, you must notify us that transactions by such a person are no longer authorized. You can terminate granted access codes yourself. You may call a branch representative for assistance with terminating an authorized user or company representative. We may have to change your access codes or take additional steps to prevent further access by such person.

Our system supporting our Online Banking service is designed so that it may be operated only upon entry of valid access codes. Since we condition access upon entry of valid access codes, we will accept instructions for transfers or other transactions from any person using valid access codes. This is so even if the person obtaining access:

- Is not a company representative.
- Exceeds your authority or that granted by any company representative.
- Does not have your authority.
- Has had his/her authority changed or revoked.
- Is an imposter or thief.

You agree to be bound by all transactions from any business account for which valid access codes were used. You authorize us to treat any instructions we receive using valid access codes as if the instructions had been made in writing and signed by the appropriate company representative. Unless there is substantial evidence to the contrary, our records will be conclusive regarding any access to, or action taken through, our Online Banking service.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we agree that you will not be responsible for transactions which occur after you have notified us to block the access codes that were used to perform the transaction, and we have had a reasonable opportunity to do so. Thus, the sooner you notify us of a problem, the better you can keep your losses down. (See the Notify us IMMEDIATELY for Unauthorized Transactions section above.)

If you are a business entity or an individual performing transactions from a business account, you agree to indemnify us and hold us harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, expenses (including but not limited to reasonable attorney fees and costs), losses or damages claimed by any third parties (including but not limited to any company representatives or other persons authorized to perform transactions) arising out of (i) any transactions or attempted transactions covered by this agreement from a business account or (ii) your breach of this agreement.

B. Rally Credit Union's Liability for Business Account

We will make every reasonable effort to provide full performance of our Online Banking system, and on a timely basis to resolve disputes that may arise. We will only be responsible for acting on instructions that we actually receive. We cannot assume responsibility for any malfunctions or capacity reductions or other problems in your equipment or in public communications networks not under our control that may affect the accuracy or timeliness of transactions you perform. Our only liability is to correct errors within our control. We are not responsible or liable to you for any loss, damage or injury caused by our Online Banking system. Neither will we be liable for any consequential, incidental, special, indirect or punitive loss or damage, including but not limited to dishonor of checks or other items or expenses which you may incur or suffer by reason of this agreement or the services we provide, whether or not the possibility or likelihood of such loss, damage, or expense is known to us.

WE MAKE NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN CONNECTION WITH THE SERVICES WE PROVIDE YOU UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

C. Error Resolution for Business Account

You agree to promptly examine all account statements and any confirmations of transfers which we or other financial Institutions may send or make available to you. You further agree that if you fail to report any unauthorized signatures, alterations or forgeries in your account within 60 days of when we first send or make the statement available, you cannot assert a claim against us on any items in that statement, and as between you and us the loss will be entirely yours. This 60-day limitation is without regard to whether we exercised ordinary care.

You may call or write:

- Telephone us at 800-622-3631 or 361-986-4500 during Member Service hours;
- Write us at:
Rally Credit Union
PO Box 81349
Corpus Christi, TX 78468-1349

As soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer covered by this agreement which is listed on the statement.

Online Banking Services – These sections provide information and additional terms and conditions for use of Rally Credit Union's Online Banking services whether the service is provided directly through Rally Credit Union or by one or more Service Providers that we have engaged to render the services to you on our behalf.

A. Payments and Transfers

To the extent we make them available, you authorize us to establish preauthorized recurring fund transfers in accordance with the requests you make for us to do so. We will only allow preauthorized recurring fund transfers that do not vary in amount.

You must have enough available money or credit in any account from which you instruct us to make a transfer. All transfers must be in U.S. Dollars.

For security reasons, we may implement limits on the number or amount of transactions you can make using our Online Banking service. We also reserve the right to limit or suspend access to our Online Banking service as we deem necessary for security reasons. We may also limit access from countries other than the United States of America.

If any qualifying accounts are money market deposit accounts or savings (share) deposit accounts, certain types of withdrawals from those accounts, including payments and transfers, are limited to a total of no more than 6 in any specified period. The kinds of withdrawals covered by this limitation are those made by means of preauthorized or automatic transfers and payments or telephone agreement, order or instruction.

- Transfers Within Credit Union

Transfers are not final at the time we receive your instructions, but we will begin to process them promptly. You should allow at least 1 business day for us to process transfers. Each transfer will be posted to any account with us from which it is made, and to any other account with us that is involved in the transaction, on the business day on which the transfer is made. Each transfer you make on a non-business day, or after our Online Banking cut-off time on any business day, will be considered made on the following business day. Information you obtain about your accounts using our Online Banking service may not reflect transactions that have not yet been posted to your accounts. You should keep that in mind when you perform or attempt to perform any transactions on the basis of such information.

- Transfers to External Accounts

You may use this Consumer ACH Payment Service, which may also be referred to as the Transfer to External Account Service, to send payments via the Automated Clearing House network ("ACH") to a deposit account that is held at a financial institution other than Rally Credit Union. You may request the Consumer ACH Payment Service and designate certain types of consumer Rally Credit Union Online Accounts, including checking, savings and certain money market accounts, from which these payments will be made (the "ACH Account"). By completing and submitting an ACH Request Form or permitting anyone to initiate a payment via ACH from the ACH Account, you agree to the terms and conditions of this Section.

This Section incorporates: (a) the designations and other information you provide in each ACH Request Form you complete and submit; (b) any instructions or additional information that may be provided to you regarding the Consumer ACH Payment Service by us or through Online Banking; and (c) the Entry Settlement Limit that we may separately communicate to you. Unless otherwise defined in this Agreement, all capitalized terms shall have the meaning given to them in the NACHA Operating Rules and Guidelines. This Section covers only ACH credit entries (which are transfers from your ACH Account to a deposit account held at another financial institution), and does not apply to the processing and transmission of ACH debit files, batches or items or other ACH credit entries, which may not be initiated under this Section or this Agreement.

You authorize and direct us to process each Entry submitted through the Consumer ACH Payment Service and in compliance with the Security Procedures described below. You are responsible for generating and authorizing all Entries and delivering the same to us in the form and format specified in this Section and by the system providing the Consumer ACH Payment Service.

Security Procedures

In addition to using the Access codes described in this section you and each Authorized ACH User also must use the security techniques that Rally Credit Union has established specifically for the Consumer ACH Payment Service, which may include the use of randomly generated numbers and/or tokens or other security devices. These additional security techniques, together with the Access codes, are referred to as the "ACH Security Procedures." Rally Credit Union may change the ACH Security Procedures as provided herein, and will provide instructions to you about the requirements of the ACH Security Procedures in effect from time to time. You agree that you and each Authorized ACH User will take all actions required to comply with the ACH Security Procedures, including maintaining the confidentiality and security of your Access codes and any security devices, changing your Access codes from time to time, and immediately reporting any suspected loss or unauthorized use of Access codes or a security device. Our records demonstrating compliance with the ACH Security Procedures with respect to any Entry will be deemed conclusive proof that the Entry received by us was authorized and you are bound by that Entry.

If an Entry (or any request to reverse or cancel an Entry) received by us was transmitted or authorized by you or any Authorized ACH User, you shall be obligated to pay the amount of the Entry regardless of (i) whether or not we complied with the ACH Security Procedures with respect to that Entry, (ii) whether or not that Entry was erroneous in any respect, and (iii) whether or not that error would have been detected if we had complied with the ACH Security Procedures.

You acknowledge and agree that in the event you, whether acting directly or through an Authorized ACH User, request us to accept any Entry made using any security procedures other than the ACH Security Procedures (which we may accept or refuse at our discretion), then you will be deemed to have chosen other security procedures after we offered and you refused security procedures that were commercially reasonable for you, and you expressly agree to be bound by any Entry, whether or not authorized, issued in your name in accordance with such other security procedures.

Prepayment for Entries

You authorize us, immediately upon our receipt of any Entry, to debit the ACH Account for the Collected Funds required by that Entry. You understand that, because of the automated systems used to provide ACH services, we automatically will debit the ACH Account for that Entry, even if the Entry subsequently will be suspended, as described below in the provision regarding Incorrect Entries, in the provision regarding Entries that contain an ACH debit file, batch or item, and in the provision regarding Overlimit Prepaid Entries and In-Process Entries. You agree that, whenever you submit an Entry to us for processing and transmission, you must have Collected Funds in the ACH Account in an amount equal to or greater than the Entry, or, if more than one Entry is submitted, the aggregate amount of the submitted Entries. You understand that we may debit the ACH Account either by actually deducting funds from the ACH Account or by placing a hold on funds in the ACH Account. In either case, once we have debited the ACH Account for the funds required by the Entry, those funds will not be available to you for any other purpose, including the payment or settlement of other items from that ACH Account.

Timing for Prepayment of Entries

You acknowledge that we transmit Entries to the Fed only during certain Entry Windows. You agree that, regardless of your requests or instructions to us, we have no obligation to transmit any Entry to the Fed on a particular day unless there are Collected Funds in the ACH Account for that Entry before the Last Fed Entry Window for that day. You agree that, in the event the Collected Funds required for any Entry do not become available in the ACH Account until after the Last Fed Entry Window on the Intended Transmission Date, we are authorized to debit the ACH Account for the Collected Funds required for that Entry on the Intended Transmission Date, even though we may not transmit the Entry until an Entry Window on the next Business

Day.

You acknowledge and agree that, if the Collected Funds required for any Entry do not become available in the ACH Account until after the Last Fed Entry Window on the Intended Transmission Date, then the Entry may not settle with its intended Recipient until a date after the Requested Settlement Date.

Prohibited Payments

You agree not to use the Consumer ACH Payment Service to make any payment IAT entries including, but not limited to, using funds that were sent to you from outside the United States if the funds were accompanied by instructions specifying one or more payments to be made with those funds or to make a payment outside the United States or for any payments that violate applicable law or any other agreements with Rally Credit Union.

Insufficient Collected Funds

If you do not have sufficient Collected Funds in the ACH Account for any Entry, we have no obligation to process or to transmit that Entry, and may suspend processing of that Entry. If you have submitted more than one Entry, we may process and transmit only those Entries for which you have Collected Funds. You acknowledge and agree that, if you submit an Entry for which there are insufficient Collected Funds in the ACH Account at the time of submission, then

- The Entry may be deleted from our ACH system and never settle with its intended Recipient, or
- Even if Collected Funds should become available in the ACH Account at a later time, the Entry may not settle with its intended Recipient until a date after the Requested Settlement Date.

Entries Under This Addendum May Not Contain Debit Files, Batches or Items

You agree to include only ACH credit files, batches and items within an Entry submitted under this Agreement. You agree that, if any Entry submitted under this Agreement contains an ACH debit file, batch or item, we have no obligation to process or to transmit that Entry and we may suspend that Entry, even if you have Collected Funds available in the ACH Account for that Entry, and we already have debited those Collected Funds from the ACH Account.

If we receive an Entry that contains an ACH debit file, batch or item, we may attempt to notify you regarding the suspension of that Entry, but you agree that we shall have no duty to correct the Entry by deleting the ACH debit file, batch or item, and no liability to you for failure to provide this notice.

Any Entry that contains an ACH debit file, batch or item will be considered an Incorrect Entry. You understand that any hold on Collected Funds covered by an Entry that contains an ACH debit file, batch or item will remain until earlier of: (i) the Entry Window occurring after you have submitted to us an authorization to delete the Incorrect Entry, and after we have had a reasonable period of time to act on that authorization; or (ii) our completion of nightly system processing on the Requested Settlement Date.

You acknowledge that, if you submit another Entry to replace an Entry that contains an ACH debit file, batch or item, and we receive the Corrected Entry before receiving your authorization to delete the original Entry or we receive both the Corrected Entry and the authorization to delete during the same Entry Window, the Corrected Entry will be processed first, and the Collected Funds required for the Corrected Entry will be debited from the ACH Account before the amount of Collected Funds debited for the original Entry can be credited to the ACH Account.

We make no representation or warranty with respect to the amount of time that may pass before a credit posts to the ACH Account upon the deletion of any Entry. You acknowledge that, depending on when we receive the authorization to delete an Entry, the credit to the ACH Account for the deleted Entry may not be posted until the next business day following your submission of that authorization.

You acknowledge and agree that, because of the automated systems used to provide ACH services, if you submit any Entry that contains an ACH debit file, batch or item, then:

- The Entry may be deleted from our ACH system and never settle with its intended Recipient; and
- The Entry will be considered an Incorrect Entry.

Overlimit Entries; Entries In Excess Of Entry Settlement Limit

You agree that we have no obligation to process or to transmit an Overlimit Entry. We will treat each submission of an Overlimit Entry as your request for approval of an increased Entry Settlement Limit, which we may grant or deny at our sole discretion. If you submit an Overlimit Entry, we may suspend the Overlimit Entry and any or all In-Process Entries, even if you have Collected Funds available in the ACH Account for the Overlimit Entry and the In-Process Entries, and we already have debited Collected Funds from the ACH Account for any or all of those Entries. For each Entry suspended because your In-Process Entries exceed the Entry Settlement Limit, we will evaluate your request for an increased Entry Settlement Limit and notify you as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than two (2) business days after suspending the Entry, whether we will: (i) process and transmit that Entry; or (ii) reject that Entry and credit the ACH Account for the amount of that Entry.

If you wish to initiate an Entry that would cause the amount of In-Process Entries to exceed the Entry Settlement Limit, you may submit to us your request to initiate an Entry that otherwise would be an Overlimit Entry. You must submit your request at least two (2) business days prior to the date on which you wish to initiate the Entry that otherwise would be an Overlimit Entry. We may require you to provide financial or other information in order to assist us in evaluating your request. We may grant or deny your request in our sole discretion.

You acknowledge and agree that, because of the automated systems used to provide ACH services, if you submit any Overlimit Entry, then:

- The Overlimit Entry and any related In-Process Entry may be suspended and we will determine whether to approve the processing of all of those Entries; and
- Even if we determine to approve the processing of Entries in excess of your Entry Settlement Limit, the Overlimit Entry and related In-Process Entries may not settle on the Requested Settlement Date unless you have allowed an additional two (2) business days for processing those Entries.

Reversing Erroneous Files, Batches or Items and NOC's

If you send an Incorrect Entry, batch or item, you must contact us to request us to initiate a reversal of that file, batch or item within one business day. You agree and acknowledge that if we receive a Notice of Correction ("NOC") file from another financial institution that results from an Entry you submit, the Entry that caused the NOC will be discontinued.

Multiple Entries

If you submit multiple Entries during a single Entry Window, we may process those Entries in any order as determined by us in our sole discretion. If there are insufficient Collected Funds in the ACH Account to pay any Entry, we may suspend that Entry and process any remaining Entries. If you submit one or more additional Entries while a previous Entry remains suspended, we will process the additional Entries, and then will re-process each suspended Entry to determine whether there are sufficient Collected Funds in the ACH Account for that Entry.

Your Additional Obligations

Delivery. You shall be solely responsible for submitting all Entries within the time periods specified in the Instructional Material and, upon our request, for delivering to us any other data, information, instruments, and documents relating to each Entry submitted through the ACH Payment Service. We may reject any Entry determined by us, in our sole discretion, to have been submitted after or before the time required by any applicable schedule or deadline.

Training Authorized ACH Users. You are solely responsible to assure that each Authorized ACH User shall be trained on and familiar with the systems used to provide the ACH Payment Service and NACHA's Rules.

Scope of the ACH Payment Service

We will process and transmit the Entries submitted through the ACH Payment Service to the Participating Financial Depository Institutions, subject to the Rules and this Agreement. We have no obligation to act on, correct, reverse, adjust, or stop payment or posting of Entries or Entry data that does not comply with the requirements or deadlines of Rally Credit Union or the Rules. We have no obligation to detect errors with respect to any Entry. However, if we detect an error with respect to an Entry, we will attempt to give you notice of the error, and you agree to furnish to us corrections promptly via the systems that provide the ACH Payment Service or as we shall direct. If you discover that any Entry is in error, you immediately shall give telephonic notice to us of the complete nature of the error and each affected Entry, and immediately thereafter shall confirm your telephonic notice in writing. You have no right to reverse, adjust or stop payment or posting of any Entry after the Entry has been transmitted by us or subsequent to any earlier time as the Rules or we may prescribe from time to time, except in accordance with procedures contained in the Rules, or any other applicable agreement. We reserve the right to limit the nature and amount of the Entries processed under this Agreement and to refuse to process any Entry if, in our sole judgment (a) there is reasonable cause to believe that any Entry will be returned or will not settle in the ordinary course of the transaction for any reason,

(b) to do otherwise would violate any limit set by the applicable clearing house association or any governmental authority or agency to control payment system risk, or (c) an Entry would create an overdraft of an ACH Account. If any of the foregoing actions are taken by us with respect to a particular Entry, we will notify you as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than two (2) business days after our decision. We have no obligation at any time to process any Entry that exceeds the Collected Funds in the ACH Account at the time that you initiate the Entry. We have the right, but not the obligation, to refuse to process any Entry for the purpose of determining whether you authorized the Entry, and shall incur no liability for any delay caused by exercising this right. We have no obligation whatsoever at any time to verify any Entry or to confirm that the Entry is initiated to make employee, tax or vendor payments, and we will have no liability for failing to verify any Entry or confirm the purpose of any Entry.

Effect of Rules

You agree to comply with and be bound by the Rules, as they may be amended from time to time, including all limitations and requirements imposed upon you as an "Originator" under the Rules. Any changes in the Rules shall be deemed automatically to amend this Agreement, effective as of the date the changes in the Rules become effective. You agree that no Rule shall be deemed to diminish our rights under this Agreement, except in the case of direct conflict, in which event the Rules shall control. Without limiting the foregoing, we may issue from time to time operating rules and procedures to you describing the operating procedures for the ACH Payment Service. From time to time, we may also issue updates to the operating rules and procedures. You agree that you will access and utilize the ACH Payment Service in accordance with our operating rules and procedures.

Fees

You agree to pay the fees for the ACH Payment Service as listed herein, in Online Banking and/or in an applicable fee schedule. Applicable fees for this Service will apply, regardless of whether the transfer is completed. You agree to pay any and all applicable fees, and you authorize us to deduct the amount of each fee from the applicable ACH Account. You also agree to pay and reimburse us for all governmental and third party fees or taxes arising out of or related to our providing the ACH Payment Service to you.

Reliance on Your Instructions

You understand and agree that, unless we, in our sole discretion, elect to do so (and even then we will be acting in our own interest and not on your behalf), we will not verify the terms of any Entry submitted through the ACH Payment Service. You are solely responsible for the accuracy and completeness of all data, instructions or other information regarding any Entry that is provided to us. You authorize us to process each Entry submitted through the ACH Payment Service in accordance with the information that we receive from you in accordance with the ACH Security Procedures. We shall have no responsibility for any erroneous information you provide, and no liability for any losses you may suffer that arise from or relate to any erroneous information you provide for any Entry submitted through the ACH Payment Service.

Limitation of Liability

Except as otherwise required by applicable law, neither we nor third party service providers or their affiliates shall be liable, and you release and waive any and all claims against us, our affiliates, third party service providers or their affiliates for any and all losses, damages, claims, judgments, costs and expenses incurred by you or by any other person or entity, whether or not acting as your agent or employee, that arise from or relate to your use of the ACH Payment Service. The limitations on the liability of Rally Credit Union, third party service providers or their affiliates provided in this Section are in addition to, and shall not diminish, any limitations on this liability contained any applicable Account Agreement or any other agreement between you and us.

Payment Methods and Amounts

There are limits on the amount of money you can send or receive through our Service. Your limits may be adjusted from time-to-time at our sole discretion. You may log in to the Site to view your individual transaction limits. We or our Service Provider also reserve the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf through the Service, and in the event that your Eligible Transaction Account is closed or otherwise unavailable to us the method to return funds to you. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic debit, a paper check drawn on the account of our Service Provider, or draft drawn against your account.

Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers

Immediately following your discovery of an unauthorized Payment Instruction, you shall communicate with customer care for the Service in the manner set forth in "Notices to Us Regarding the Service" of the General Terms above. You acknowledge and agree that time is of the essence such situations. If you tell us within two (2) Business Days after you discover your password or other means to access your account through which you access the Service has been lost or stolen, your liability is no more than $50.00 should someone access your account without your permission. If you do not tell us within two (2) Business Days after you learn of such loss or theft, and we can prove that we could have prevented the unauthorized use of your password or other means to access your account if you had told us, you could be liable for as much as $500.00. If your monthly financial institution statement contains payments that you did not authorize, you must tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was sent to you, you may lose any amount transferred without your authorization after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money had you told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) prevented you from telling us, we may in our sole discretion extend the period.

Taxes

It is your responsibility to determine what, if any, taxes apply to the transactions you make or receive, and it is your responsibility to collect, report and remit the correct tax to the appropriate tax authority. We are not responsible for determining whether taxes apply to your transaction, or for collecting, reporting or remitting any taxes arising from any transaction.

Failed or Returned Payment Instructions

In using the Service, you are requesting that we or our Service Provider attempt to make payments for you from your Eligible Transaction Account. If the Payment Instruction cannot be completed for any reason associated with your Eligible Transaction Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Eligible Transaction Account, or the Payment Instruction would exceed the credit or overdraft protection limit of your Eligible Transaction Account, to cover the payment), the Payment Instruction may or may not be completed. In certain circumstances, our Service Provider may either advance funds drawn on their corporate account or via an electronic debit, and in such circumstances will attempt to debit the Eligible Transaction Account a second time to complete the Payment Instruction. In some instances, you will receive a return notice from us or our Service Provider. In each such case, you agree that:

- You will reimburse our Service Provider immediately upon demand the amount of the Payment Instruction if the payment has been delivered but there are insufficient funds in, or insufficient overdraft credits associated with, your Eligible Transaction Account to allow the debit processing to be completed;
- You may be assessed a late fee equal to one and a half percent (1.5%) of any unpaid amounts plus costs of collection by our Service Provider or their third-party contractor if the Payment Instruction cannot be debited because you have insufficient funds in your Eligible Transaction Account, or the transaction would exceed the credit or overdraft protection limit of your Eligible Transaction Account, to cover the payment, or if the funds cannot otherwise be collected from you. The aforesaid amounts will be charged in addition to any NSF charges that may be assessed by us, as set forth in your fee schedule from us (including as disclosed on the Site) or your account agreement with us. You hereby authorize us and our Service Provider to deduct all of these amounts from your designated Eligible Transaction Account, including by ACH debit;

- Service Provider is authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.

Address or Banking Changes

It is your sole responsibility and you agree to ensure that the contact information in your user profile is current and accurate. This includes, but is not limited to, name, physical address, phone numbers and email addresses. Depending on the Service, changes may be able to be made within the user interface of the Service or by contacting customer care for the Service as set forth in “Notices to Us Regarding the Service” of the General Terms above. We are not responsible for any payment processing errors or fees incurred if you do not provide accurate Eligible Transaction Account, Payment Instructions or contact information.

Information Authorization

Your enrollment in the applicable Service may not be fulfilled if we cannot verify your identity or other necessary information. Through your enrollment in or use of each Service, you agree that we reserve the right to request a review of your credit rating at our own expense through an authorized bureau. In addition, and in accordance with our Privacy Policy, you agree that we reserve the right to obtain personal information about you, including without limitation, financial information and transaction history regarding your Eligible Transaction Account. You further understand and agree that we reserve the right to use personal information about you for our and our Service Providers’ everyday business purposes, such as to maintain your ability to access the Service, to authenticate you when you log in, to send you information about the Service, to perform fraud screening, to verify your identity, to determine your transaction limits, to perform collections, to comply with laws, regulations, court orders and lawful instructions from government agencies, to protect the personal safety of subscribers or the public, to defend claims, to resolve disputes, to troubleshoot problems, to enforce this Agreement, to protect our rights and property, and to customize, measure, and improve the Service and the content and layout of the Site. Additionally, we and our Service Providers may use your information for risk management purposes and may use, store and disclose your information acquired in connection with this Agreement as permitted by law, including (without limitation) any use to effect, administer or enforce a transaction or to protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud, unauthorized transactions, claims or other liability. We and our Service Providers shall have the right to retain such data even after termination or expiration of this Agreement for risk management, regulatory compliance, or audit reasons, and as permitted by applicable law for everyday business purposes. In addition we and our Service Providers may use, store and disclose such information acquired in connection with the Service in statistical form for pattern recognition, modeling, enhancement and improvement, system analysis and to analyze the performance of the Service.

Service Termination, Cancellation, or Suspension

If you wish to cancel the Service, you may contact us as set forth in “Notices to Us Regarding the Service” of the General Terms above. Any payment(s) that have begun processing before the requested cancellation date will be processed by us. You agree that we may terminate or suspend your use of the Service at any time and for any reason or no reason. Neither termination, cancellation nor suspension shall affect your liability or obligations under this Agreement.

Errors, Questions, and Complaints.

In case of errors or questions about your transactions, you should as soon as possible contact us as set forth in “Notices to Us Regarding the Service” of the General Terms above.

If you think your periodic statement for your account is incorrect or you need more information about a transaction listed in the periodic statement for your account, we must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we send you the applicable periodic statement for your account that identifies the error. You must:

- Tell us your name;
- Describe the error or the transaction in question, and explain as clearly as possible why you believe it is an error or why you need more information; and,
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.
- If you tell us orally, we may require that you send your complaint in writing within ten (10) Business Days after your oral notification. No Waiver

- "Billing Account" is the checking account from which all Service fees will be automatically debited.
- "Due Date" is the date reflected on your Biller statement for which the payment is due, not the late payment date or the date beginning or a date during any grace period.
- "Eligible Transaction Account" is as defined in "Explanation of Terms" of the General Terms, except that it shall be limited to an account that you hold with us, and from which bill payments will be debited.
- "Exception Payments" means payments to deposit accounts or brokerage accounts, payments to settle securities transactions (including, without limitation, stocks, bonds, securities, futures (forex), options, or an investment interest in any entity or property).
- "Payment Instruction" is as defined in "Explanation of Terms" of the General Terms, and is further defined as the information provided by you to the Service for a bill payment to be made to the Biller (such as, but not limited to, Biller name, Biller account number, and Scheduled Payment Date).
- "Scheduled Payment" is a payment that has been scheduled through the Service but has not begun processing.
- "Scheduled Payment Date" is the day you want your Biller to receive your bill payment, unless the Scheduled Payment Date falls on a non-Business Day in which case it will be considered to be the previous Business Day.

Description of Service

The term "Bill Payment Terms" means these Bill Payment Service Additional Terms. The bill payment service (for purposes of these Bill Payment Terms, and the General Terms as they apply to these Bill Payment Terms, the "Service") enables you to receive, view, and pay bills from the Site.

Payment Scheduling.

The earliest possible Scheduled Payment Date for each Biller will be designated within the portion of the Site through which the Service is offered when you are scheduling the payment. Therefore, the Service will not permit you to select a Scheduled Payment Date less than the earliest possible Scheduled Payment Date designated for each Biller. When scheduling payments you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is no later than the actual Due Date reflected on your Biller statement unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Scheduled Payment Dates must be prior to any late date or grace period. Depending on the method of payment, your Eligible Transaction Account may be debited prior to the Scheduled Payment Date. For example, if the selected method of payment is a draft, the draft arrives earlier than the Scheduled Payment Date due to expedited delivery by the postal service, and the Biller immediately deposits the draft, your Eligible Transaction Account may be debited earlier than the Scheduled Payment Date.

The Service Guarantee

Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Service, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Billers or financial institutions, some transactions may take longer to be credited to your account. The Service will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the Section "Payment Scheduling" of the Bill Payment Terms.

Payment Authorization and Payment Remittance

By providing the Service with names and account information of Billers to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize the Service to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives through the Site. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Service may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Biller directives.

When the Service receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize the Service to debit your Eligible Transaction Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Scheduled Payment Date designated by you. You also authorize the Service to credit your Eligible Transaction Account for payments returned to the Service by the United States Postal Service or Biller, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Service.

The Service will attempt to make all your payments properly. However, the Service shall incur no liability and any Service Guarantee as described in the Bill Payment Terms, shall be void if the Service is unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

- If, through no fault of the Service, your Eligible Transaction Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account;
- The payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the Service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction;
- You have not provided the Service with the correct Eligible Transaction Account information, or the correct name, address, phone number, or account information for the Biller; and/or,
- Circumstances beyond control of the Service (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Eligible Transaction Account or causes funds from your Eligible Transaction Account to be directed to a Biller which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Eligible Transaction Account, and for directing to the proper Biller any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

Payment Cancellation Requests

You may cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including recurring payments) by following the directions within the portion of the Site through which the Service is offered. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment. Once the Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

Stop Payment Requests

The Service's ability to process a stop payment request will depend on the payment method and whether or not a check has cleared. The Service may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been processed, you must contact customer care for the Service in the manner set forth in Section "Errors, Questions and Complaints" of the General Terms above. Although the Service will attempt to accommodate your request, the Service will have no liability for failing to do so. The Service may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each stop payment request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable fee schedule.

Exception Payments Requests

Exception Payments may be scheduled through the Service, however Exception Payments are discouraged and must be scheduled at your own risk. Except as required by applicable law, in no event shall the Service be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling of Exception Payments. The Service Guarantee as described of the Bill Payment Terms does not apply to Exception Payments.

Bill Delivery and Presentment.

The Service includes a feature that electronically presents you with electronic bills from select Billers. Electronic bills may not be available from all of your Billers. Electronic bills are provided as a convenience only, and you remain solely responsible for contacting your Billers directly if you do not receive their statements. In addition, if you elect to activate one of the Service's electronic bill options, you also agree to the following:

- Presentation of electronic bills. You will receive electronic bills from a Biller only if both: (a) you have designated it in the Service as one of your Billers, and (b) the Biller has arranged with our Service Provider to deliver electronic bills. The Service may then present you with electronic bills from that Biller if either: (1) you affirmatively elect online within the Service to receive electronic bills from the Biller, or (2) the Biller chooses to send you electronic bills on a temporary “trial basis.” In either case, you can elect online within the Service to stop receiving electronic bills from a Biller. Electing to receive electronic bills, automatically receiving trial electronic bills, and declining further elected or trial electronic bills all occur on an individual Biller basis. The Service does not include an option to prevent ever participating in the automatic trial electronic bill feature. When affirmatively electing to receive electronic bills from a particular Biller, you may be presented with terms from that Biller for your acceptance. We are not a party to such terms.
 - Paper Copies of electronic bills. If you start receiving electronic bills from a Biller, the Biller may stop sending you paper or other statements. The ability to receive a paper copy of your statement(s) is at the sole discretion of the Biller. Check with the individual Biller regarding your ability to obtain paper copies of electronic bills on a regular or as-requested basis.
 - Sharing Information with Billers. You authorize us to share identifying personal information about you (such as name, address, telephone number, Biller account number) with companies that you have identified as your Billers and which we have identified as offering electronic bills for purposes of matching your identity on the Service’s records and the Biller’s records to (a) activate your affirmative request for electronic bills, and/or (b) confirm your eligibility for “trial basis” electronic bills.
 - Information held by the Biller. We are unable to update or change your personal information such as, but not limited to, name, address, phone numbers and email addresses, that is held by the Biller. Any changes will require you to contact the Biller directly. Additionally it is your responsibility to maintain all usernames and passwords for all electronic Biller sites. You also agree not to use someone else's information to gain unauthorized access to another person's bill. We may, at the request of the Biller, provide to the Biller your email address, service address, or other data specifically requested by the Biller for purposes of the Biller matching your identity against its records or informing you about the Biller’s services and/or bill information.

- Activation. We will notify the Biller of your request to receive electronic billing information. The presentment of your first electronic bill may vary from Biller to Biller and may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Biller. While your electronic bill feature is being activated it is your responsibility to keep your accounts current. Each electronic Biller reserves the right to accept or deny your request to receive electronic bills.
- Authorization to obtain bill data. You authorize us to obtain bill data from your Billers that you have requested to send you electronic bills, and from your Billers that wish to send you trial electronic bills. For some Billers, you will be asked to provide us with your user name and password for that Biller. By providing us with such information, you authorize us to use the information to obtain your bill data.
- Notification. We will attempt to present all of your electronic bills promptly. In addition to notification within the Service, we may send an e-mail notification to the e-mail address listed for your account. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that this information is accurate. In the event you do not receive notification, it is your responsibility to periodically logon to the Service and check on the delivery of new electronic bills. The time for notification may vary from Biller to Biller. You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills.
- Cancellation of electronic bill notification. The electronic Biller reserves the right to cancel the presentment of electronic bills at any time. You may cancel electronic bill presentment at any time. The timeframe for cancellation of your electronic bill presentment may vary from Biller to Biller. It may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Biller. We will notify your electronic Biller(s) as to the change in status of your account and it is your sole responsibility to make arrangements for an alternative form of bill delivery. We will not be responsible for presenting any electronic bills that are already in process at the time of cancellation.
- Non-Delivery of electronic bill(s). You agree to hold us harmless should the Biller fail to deliver your statement(s). You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills. Copies of previously delivered bills must be requested from the Biller directly.
- Accuracy and dispute of electronic bill. We are not responsible for the accuracy of your electronic bill(s). We are only responsible for presenting the information we receive from the Biller. Any discrepancies or disputes regarding the accuracy of your electronic bill summary or detail must be directly addressed and resolved with the Biller by you.

The Service may, at the request of the Biller, provide to the Biller your e-mail address, service address, or other data specifically requested by the Biller at the time of activating the electronic bill for that Biller, for purposes of the Biller informing you about Service and/or bill information.

Activation - Upon activation of the electronic bill feature the Service may notify the Biller of your request to receive electronic billing information. The presentment of your first electronic bill may vary from Biller to Biller and may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Biller. Additionally, the ability to receive a paper copy of your statement(s) is at the sole discretion of the Biller. While your electronic bill feature is being activated it is your responsibility to keep your accounts current. Each electronic Biller reserves the right to accept or deny your request to receive electronic bills.

Authorization to obtain bill data - Your activation of the electronic bill feature for a Biller shall be deemed by us to be your authorization for us to obtain bill data from the Biller on your behalf. For some Billers, you will be asked to provide us with your user name and password for that Biller. By providing us with such information, you authorize us to use the information to obtain your bill data.

Notification - The Service will use its best efforts to present all of your electronic bills promptly. In addition to notification within the Service, the Service may send an e-mail notification to the e-mail address listed for your account. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that this information is accurate. In the event you do not receive notification, it is your responsibility to periodically logon to the Service and check on the delivery of new electronic bills. The time for notification may vary from Biller to Biller. You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills.

The Service will not be responsible for presenting any electronic bills that are already in process at the time of cancellation.

If your monthly financial institution statement contains transfers that you did not authorize, you must tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was sent to you, you may lose any amount transferred without your authorization after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money had you told us in time. However, if we require more time to confirm the nature of your complaint or question, we reserve the right to take up to forty-five (45) days to complete our investigation. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your Payment Account within ten (10) Business Days for the amount you think is in error. If we ask you to submit your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) Business Days, we may not provisionally credit your Payment Account. If it is determined there was no error we will mail you a written explanation within three (3) Business Days after completion of our investigation. You may ask for copies of documents used in our investigation. The Service may revoke any provisional credit provided to you if we find an error did not occur.

Credit Union or its Service Provider may monitor and audit usage of this system. You are hereby notified that the use of this system constitutes consent to such monitoring and auditing.

Description of Service and Consent

Credit Union debit cardholders may send one-time Transfers to Credit Union members or a depositor of another financial institution. Notice is given to the Recipient by the Sender providing the Recipient's email address or mobile phone number. You may originate these Transfers by use of a computer or a mobile smart phone. You may register for the Service which will make future Transfers more convenient for you. To use this Service you are providing information to our Service Provider from your mobile phone, desktop, laptop, or other computer. Service Provider is a vendor of Credit Union.

By participating in the Service, you are representing to the Credit Union that you are the owner or you have the authority to act on behalf of the owner of the mobile phone number or email address you are using to send or receive messages regarding Transfers. In addition, you are consenting to the receipt of emails or automated text messages from the Credit Union or its agent, regarding the Transfers and represent to the Credit Union that you have obtained the consent of the Recipients of your intended Transfers.

Funds may be transferred to any account in the United States as long as the Transfer is legal and allowed by the financial institutions involved.

Eligibility

Individuals aged 18 years and older with a debit card issued by Credit Union are eligible to use this Service to send funds to a Recipient. Any individual age 18 years and older with an account in the United States that may receive POS or ACH transactions may use this Service to receive funds that are transferred by the Sender. The Service is not offered to individuals under the age of 18. Other restrictions and eligibility requirements apply as described in this Agreement or other disclosures. Credit Union does not knowingly collect any personal information from or about individuals under 18 years of age. Please do not submit such information to the Credit Union, and as a parent or legal guardian, please do not allow your children to submit personal information without your permission. By using the Site or the Service, you represent that you meet these requirements.

Transfers

You may make one-time Transfers by entering your debit card number and email address. The Sender provides the Recipient's email address or mobile phone number, and the Service uses this information to notify the Recipient. A Recipient must accept the Transfer within 10 days, or the Transfer will be cancelled and reversed. During this period, funds will be removed from the Sender's Account for the amount of the Transfer and the fee. Once the Recipient has successfully accepted the Transfer, funds will be sent to the Recipient's financial institutions for deposit to the Recipient's account. If the Sender and Recipient are both Credit Union members enrolled in the Service, Transfers will be immediately debited from the Sender's Account and reflected in the Recipient's Account. If the Sender and Recipient are both enrolled in the Service but are customers of different financial institutions, Transfers will be immediately debited from the Sender's Account and will be delivered to the Recipient's financial institution once claimed. Credit Union is not responsible for any failure of another financial institution to timely credit its customer's account.

You acknowledge and agree that Transfers will be completed using only the email address or mobile phone number you enter even if it identifies a person different from your intended Recipient. The name you enter will help you identify your intended Recipient in the drop down menu and your transaction history but will not be used to process payments. You must accurately enter the Recipient's email address or mobile phone number since your obligation to pay for the Transfer will not be excused by an error in the information you enter.

Transfer Instructions relating to external accounts and the transmission and issuance of data related to such Transfer Instructions shall be received pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association ("NACHA") and the applicable automated clearing house, as well as any EFT Network, or networks, utilized to automate the transfer of funds and governed by Regulation E, (collectively, the "Rules"). The parties agree to be bound by such Rules as in effect from time to time. In accordance with such Rules, any credit to an Account shall be provisional until the Credit Union or the third party institution, which holds the account, has finally settled such credit.

It is the responsibility of the Sender and Recipient of funds to provide accurate information. You agree that you as Sender are authorized to withdraw or as Recipient are authorized to deposit funds into the Accounts whose numbers you provide or into the Accounts associated with the card number you are providing. You authorize the Credit Union, directly or through third parties, to make any inquires considered necessary to validate your identity. This may include asking you for further information, requiring you to take steps to confirm ownership of your email address or financial instruments, ordering a credit report and verifying your information against third party databases or through other sources.

You authorize the Credit Union to debit your account to complete the Transfer you request. If you are receiving funds, you authorize the crediting of your account using card networks or NACHA

Sender Acknowledgment

By using this Service you, as the Sender, authorize the sending of an email or text message instructing the Recipient how to receive the funds that you are sending. You are further authorizing any Recipient of this message to act on the instructions to receive the funds you are sending. You acknowledge that any party receiving the email message at the email address you provide or text message at the mobile phone number you provide may obtain the funds you are sending.

You acknowledge and agree that we are not responsible for determining the identity of the party who receives the email or text message and acts upon the email or text message you provide. Your funds may not reach the intended Recipient because of errors made by the Sender or Recipient and you could lose all the funds. The funds that are credited to the account cannot be recalled by us. If you suspect that you have entered information incorrectly, call us immediately and we may be able to cancel the Transfer. We have no obligation to cancel the Transfer or to reimburse funds that were transferred according to the Sender's instructions. Furthermore, we may reject any Transfer request and may terminate your use of this Service for any reason including attempting insufficient funded Transfers.

Recipient Acknowledgment

By using this Service you as the Recipient are confirming that you are the person to whom the Sender intends to transfer funds. As the Recipient, you will be asked to provide your debit card information that will be used to transfer funds to your Account. If you choose not to provide your debit card information or your institution does not participate, you will be asked to provide account information including account number and routing information for your financial institution. In this case the funds will be transferred through the Automated Clearing House.

It is important that you enter accurate information. You agree that Credit Union, the receiving financial institution and our Service Provider may rely solely on the instructions you provide. If you enter inaccurate cardholder or account number information the funds may be deposited into another person's account. You acknowledge that the financial institution may make the deposit based on the account number or card number you provide even if those numbers do not correlate to the name that you provide. Retrieval of these funds will be the Recipient's responsibility to work with the financial institution to which the funds were sent. You may lose all the funds that were transferred. The funds that are credited to the account cannot be recalled by us.

If you suspect that you have entered information incorrectly or that you have received funds in error, call us immediately and we may attempt to cancel the transaction. We have no obligation to cancel the Transfer or to reimburse funds that were transferred according to the Recipient's instructions.

By using this Service you agree that you are the intended recipient of the email or text message and that you are the intended recipient of the funds. If you are not the person to whom the funds are intended then you agree to take no further action. You understand that it is a federal felony to use another person's identification with the intent to commit unlawful activity. You represent that the information you are providing is your true and correct information. If any information you provide is fraudulent, Credit Union reserves the right to recover all costs or losses from you, regardless of whether such costs or losses are incurred directly or indirectly.

Fees and Limitations on Transfers

The Credit Union may establish an amount and limit on the number of Transfers and on the total dollar amount of Transfers that can be attempted or completed in one day. You may send multiple Transfers each day; a separate fee is charged for each Transfer you send. We may modify the amount and frequency of Transfers at any time for security reasons or due to account activity.

Funds may be transferred from the account from which the debit card is authorized to transfer funds. Such transfers may overdraw your account and may result in a transfer from another account to cover the overdraft. In any of these situations, a transfer fee will be charged, as applicable. You may be denied service for insufficient funds in your account. You will be responsible for any other transaction fees that apply to your Account.

Please note that your mobile carrier may charge you for text messaging. Please check your mobile service agreement for details on applicable fees. The receiving institution may have limits on the number and type of Transfers allowed. Your financial institution may also charge a transaction fee.

Timing of Transfers

Transfers to remove the funds from the Sender's Account may take place immediately. However, the timing of funds received will depend on when the Recipient responds to the email and when their financial institution posts the Transfer. The posting of the Transfer is dependent on the business days of that institution.

Issues Affecting the Posting of Transfers

You authorize us to debit your account to complete the Transfer you request. If you are receiving funds, you authorize the Credit Union to credit your Account using card networks/switches or NACHA.

Other events may affect the timing or success of a Transfer reaching the intended Recipient. Such events may include, but are not limited to, errors made by the Sender or Recipient in entering information, inaccurate account or card number information, delays in posting by the receiving institution, acts of God, and network and NACHA interruptions. If we believe the Transfer may be illegal, we may decline or reverse the Transfer. The receiving institution may choose not to post the Transfer or to delay posting the Transfer. Neither the Credit Union nor the Service Provider is responsible for any delays in the Transfer of funds or the posting of funds to the Recipient's Account. You may have certain rights and responsibilities regarding the failure to timely post transactions and you are encouraged to pursue dispute resolution with the receiving financial institution.

Financial institutions have rules and regulations that govern their accounts. Some of these regulations may not allow a POS or ACH transfer of funds. You are responsible for ensuring that these types of Transfers are allowed for the Account that you specify. For example, an IRA may not allow electronic transfers directly into the Account. We are not responsible for any action or lack of action taken by the financial institution that delays, inhibits, or prevents the posting of the Transfer to the Account.

Security

The Sender and Recipient of funds may choose to register for this Service to simplify their future use of the Service. They will be asked to create a username and password and you are responsible for keeping them secure. We will not ask you for your password.

If the financial institution contacts us or our Service Provider for information regarding your Account, you authorize us to discuss the Transfer and the account information you have provided.
