In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Statement

If you think your statement is wrong or you need more information about a transaction on your statement, write to us (on a separate sheet) at the address on the front of this statement as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us at the phone number listed on the front of this statement, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error or transaction you are unsure about, and explain why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Date and sign your letter.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question. This is a summary of your rights. A full statement of your rights and the credit unions responsibilities under the Federal Credit Billing Act will be sent to you upon request.

The balance used to compute the FINANCE CHARGE on Open-End Credit Loans is the actual outstanding balance each day after credits are subtracted and new advances or other charges are added. The FINANCE CHARGE is computed on the daily outstanding balance by applying the daily periodic rate to that balance for the exact number of days such balance remains outstanding. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE is determined by multiplying the Periodic Rate by the number of periods in a year (365).
